Minutes from the 10th Command Staff Zoom Meeting - Sunday, April 5, 2020 at 1pm

Updates by Company-

Grenadier Company:

- Platoons continue virtual meetings to maintain contact with all members.
- One-on-one training is continuing to happen with recruits following appropriate social distancing guidelines and/or holding virtual drill sessions. Recruits continue to work on the details of the 35 count manual of arms and are all making excellent progress.

Colonel's Company:

- The company is planning a virtual meeting for its members in the upcoming week.
- Recruits are practicing drill using the 10th training videos and are coming along.

Music Company:

- The company is planning a virtual meeting for its members in the upcoming week. Anthony discussed the challenges of playing/practicing virtually.

Light Infantry Company:

- The company met as a group on Friday, April 3, for a virtual meeting. They spent most of the meeting laughing.
- Chris Franklin will be taking Colonel's Leave for the upcoming season.

NCO:

- The NCO's will be meeting again, (via Zoom) Wednesday, April 8, at 8pm to discuss training opportunities for the regiment as well as the 2020 Gibraltar Award.
- The NCOs will be working on an "At Home With The 10th" 35 count video with the regiment. They will be sending out an e-mail assigning musket carrying members a part of the 35 count to film. More details will be coming over the next week.

Quartermaster:

- Lenny mailed out kit basics to new Colonel's Company recruit Grady this week.
- Paul is continuing to work on musket repairs in the workshop. Adam Us will be returning his kit to Paul in the upcoming weeks.
- Paul is also working on a new sling design, beginning with the Light Infantry based on Dylan's prototype.

All companies are mindful of members who have increased work loads and responsibilities due to the current situation. Any members that need anything should continue to reach out to their company NCOs.

All Members:

- Jim Hollister is continuing to look for pictures, videos, accounts of reenactors leading up to Patriot's Day. Please contact him if you are interested in submitting.
